

Allan sold their home and lived alone in a condominium near his daughter Patty and visits all of his children. Allan kept in touch with Edna and I through letters and visits on the telephone. He died in Dallas, Texas on December 11, 1982 following a lengthy recovery period from spinal surgery. Following memorial services in Houston, he was buried in Arlington National Cemetery; he was 86 years old.

65